

Please support our right to privacy and freedom from harrassment from unwanted telephone calls. The phone rings non-stop all day from people bothering me wanting something for me. They never leave you alone, they are like spam email. My email has the capacity to block unwanted solicitation and so should my phone.